The Collect of the Day

All O God, our Father, at the baptism of Jesus you proclaimed him your beloved Son and anointed him with the Holy Spirit. Make all who are baptized into Christ faithful to their calling to be your daughters and sons, and empower us all with your Spirit, through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

First Reading: Isaiah 42:1-9

Psalm 29

Ascribe to the Lord, O heavenly beings,
ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.

Ascribe to the Lord the glory of his name;
worship the Lord in holy splendor.

The voice of the Lord is over the waters;
the God of glory thunders,
the Lord, over mighty waters.

The voice of the Lord is powerful;
the voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

The voice of the Lord breaks the cedars;
the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon.

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young wild ox.

The voice of the Lord flashes forth flames of fire.
The voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness;
the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

The voice of the Lord causes the oaks to whirl
and strips the forest bare,
and in his temple all say, "Glory!"

The Lord sits enthroned over the flood;
the Lord sits enthroned as king forever.

May the Lord give strength to his people!
May the Lord bless his people with peace!

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now, for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw God's Spirit descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from the heavens said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, The Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit
And born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again To judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, The holy catholic Church,
The communion of saints, The forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People – Cynthia Preyser

Celebrant      Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; God welcomes sinners and invites us to this table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept

Celebrant: Most merciful God,

All      We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name.                      Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People      Amen.

Celebrant      The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People      And also with you.

Offertory Hymn: CP 165 Mark How the Lamb

Prayer over the Gifts

Source of love and life, receive all we offer you this day, and through the coming of your Son, help us to see in others him who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant      The Lord be with you.

All:              And also with you

Celebrant      Lift up your hearts.

All:              We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant      Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise

Celebrant: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; we give you thanks and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord, who on this first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. In our unending joy we echo on earth the song of the angels in heaven as we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, Loving God, according to his command,

All We remember his death,

we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory;

Celebrant      and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer – (sung)

David Haas

Celebrant      We break the bread of life,
And that life is the light of the world.

All                    God here among us,
Light in the midst of us,
Bring us to light and life.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for the kind and warm welcome I received after my first service with you last Sunday. What a wonderful way for me to start the new year and I am very grateful to all of you.

I asked you a few questions during my sermon, "Is it obvious to the community here in Qualicum that God lives in the midst of our congregation? Are we reaching out with the Light of Christ into our community? Are we an open and caring community that invites people into faith?"

From my experience Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this past week as I spent time with the wardens, Marianne in the office, with Ryan as he showed me around and introduced me to the school, and as I learned about the Manna Program and the support given by St. Mark. I learned about the many outreach projects that are currently underway, educational programs, prayer ministries, pastoral care, the amazing and dedicated volunteers, and just so much more.

I must also say a special note of thanks the Wardens: Sue and Wendy and their spouses for their kind and warm welcome, and to Paul for helping me navigate my first services, setting up my computer, and looking for ways to lighten my work load in so many ways.

So the answer to my questions? Yes! most definitely! You are a light shining in the community and beyond. What a wonderful parish is St. Mark. I am very excited about my time with you.

Your new incumbent will be truly blessed to be among you, when he or she arrives. Meanwhile, may we have a blessed time together.

Wishing you all a wonderful 2026 and may St. Mark continue to be a beacon of light to the community of Qualicum and the surrounding communities.

Blessings,
Rev. Deborah Rivet
