Luke 6:32

32 “If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

Luke 6:33

33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.

Luke 6:34

34 And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount.

Luke 6:35

35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil.

Luke 6:36

36 Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

Luke 6:37-38a

37 “Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; 38 give, and it will be given to you.

Luke 6:38b

Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over,
will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you.”

Marks of Condemning Judgmentalism:

- Attributing the worst possible assumptions to other people's motives.
- Pouring cold water on their skins and their dreams.
- Being ungenerous towards others when they make mistakes.

- John Stott

II. A Desirable Response

37 “Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; 38 give, and it will be given to you.

II. A Desirable Response
