

The Kind of Prayer That Brings an Answer

Adult Small Group Discussion Questions

- 1. Daniel prayed even after knowing God's promise would be fulfilled. Why do you think God still calls us to pray for things He has already promised?
- 2. Daniel 10 shows that spiritual resistance can delay visible answers. How does this passage change the way you interpret unanswered or delayed prayers in your own life?
- 3. The sermon mentioned Spirit-born intensity in prayer. What do you think is the difference between routine prayer and Spirit-led, burden-driven prayer?
- 4. God sometimes places dissatisfaction or holy discontent in our hearts. Can you share a time when discomfort or longing pushed you closer to God rather than away from Him?
- 5. Daniel responded to God's Word with fasting, humility, and confession (Daniel 9). Which of these responses is hardest for you personally, and why?
- 6. Daniel confessed corporate sin, not just personal sin. How can intercessory prayer for our families, church, or nation shape our spiritual maturity?
- 7. From the first day you prayed, you were heard. How would your prayer life change if you truly believed God hears you immediately?
- 8. In Daniel 9, Daniel appeals to God's character and mercy, not his own worthiness. How does this affect the way we approach God in prayer today?
- 9. What are some practical ways we can stay persistent in prayer when we don't see immediate results?
- 10. After hearing this message, what is one burden or area God may be inviting you to intercede for more intentionally in this season?
