Mission Aviation Fellowship Workshop

Saturday, February 7

9 AM - 1:30 PM in the Activity Center

Are you interested in becoming a servant of Christ in Missions? Spend a day with Mission Aviation Fellowship staff exploring the concept of Imago Dei (Image of God) and learning to anchor your identity in Christ rather than your ministry role or performance. Through interactive sessions on navigating unmet expectations and "living in your own armor," you will gain the tools to face the unique challenges of the mission field with spiritual confidence. Join us for this vital time of preparation to ensure your heart is ready for service at home and abroad. Lunch will be provided.

Registrations requested, but no fee to attend! Register on Planning Center or contact the church office: 928-445-4348.

Transportation from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University is available upon request.
