Have you ever wanted to visit Daufuskie Island? Our Prime Time group is going and you are invited! Join us March 20-22, 2026. Daufuskie Island is home to one of the most well-preserved cultural communities in the Southeast. The residents are descendants of enslaved Africans who developed a unique cultural blending African traditions with American influences. Our plan is to visit the Daufuskie Island History Museum and First Union African Baptist Church to learn more about the remarkable culture that continues to thrive today. We will also worship at the church before we depart on Sunday. We will drive the bus but will then have to get on a ferry to get to Daufuskie. The only transportation on Daufuskie is by golf cart. We plan to stay at the condos on Daufuskie and rent golf carts for transportation. Estimated cost: $510 per couple. Payment for the trip is due by Feb. 15th. You can find more information on the Prime Time bulletin board or you can see Shannon with questions.

Prime Time: Join our Prime Time group as we go see Some Enchanted Evening at Broad River Arts Center. Tickets will be $20; Dinner is not included in the ticket price. PLEASE (please, please) only sign up if you are sure, you are going so that we aren't wasting money on unused tickets. You can find more information about the show on the Prime Time bulletin board.
