Notes From the Director of Music

A Reflection on "I Love to Tell the Story"

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we gather each week in worship, we are continually reminded of the power of music to uplift our spirits and deepen our faith. One hymn that holds a special place in our hearts is "I Love to Tell the Story." This timeless piece not only embodies the essence of our Christian journey but also enriches our collective worship experience.

Written by Katherine Hankey in the late 19th century, "I Love to Tell the Story" was inspired by her deep love for the Gospel and her desire to share it with others. The hymn's verses resonate with many of us, reminding us of the joy and importance of recounting the life and teachings of Jesus Christ. Each time we sing this hymn, we declare our commitment to sharing the Good News, not just within the walls of our church but also in our daily lives.

In our Lutheran tradition, music plays a pivotal role in worship, serving as a vehicle for expressing our faith and connecting with God. "I Love to Tell the Story" invites us to reflect on our personal testimonies and the transformative impact of Jesus in our lives. As we sing, we are encouraged to embrace our calling as witnesses of His grace, sharing the story of salvation with enthusiasm and authenticity.

During our recent worship services, the energy in the congregation has been palpable as we lift our voices together. It's a beautiful reminder that we are not just individuals but a community united in faith, bound together by the stories we tell and the love we share.

As we continue to explore the themes of storytelling in our worship, I encourage each of you to think about your own faith journey. What has God done in your life that you want to share? How can you tell your story in a way that invites others to experience the love of Christ?

Let us embrace the opportunity to tell the story of Him—through our hymns, our testimonies, and our everyday actions. I look forward to seeing how our collective voices can inspire and uplift one another as we embark on this journey together.

In Christ's love,

William Jacavage ( Bill)
Director of Music Ministries
