PRIMARY TRAINERS

Revd. Shane Marques is an Anglican Minister and has been the Senior Minister of Living Water Anglican Church since 2014. Shane was ordained in 2008 and is originally from South Africa where he gained 10 years experience pastoring youth, young adults and families. He has a BTh from George Whitefield College, Cape Town. Shane's theological interests lie in synthesising Biblical, Systematic and Historical theology in order to faithfully reach and disciple this present generation with the life transforming gospel of Jesus Christ.

Revd. Dr. Richard Goetz is an Associate Minister at Living Water Anglican Church, in Albany, WA. Richard also teaches secondary Religion and Life courses at a local Christian School. He is an American who comes to Albany and Living Water after twelve years of seminary teaching in Singapore where he taught theology, church history, apologetics, ethics and practical theology. Richard earned his PhD in theology from Marquette University and his MA in theology from Wheaton College Graduate School, both in the US. In addition to his graduate degrees and teaching experience, he also has thirteen years of pastoral experience as youth pastor, discipleship pastor and church plant lead pastor. Richard teaches from both a solid academic background and a wealth of practical ministry experience.

“The Diploma has been a wonderful opportunity to study locally. It has broadened my understanding and knowledge of the Bible, Church History and the key foundations of the Christian faith.”
-Eric G

“This was a wonderful course to participate in, it has really helped me dive so much deeper into scripture...”
-Thomas W
