Week 3 - The Spirit Who Speaks:
Prophecy and Words of Knowledge

When you hear the word prophecy, what comes to mind? What experience do you have with it, if any?

What kind of reservations do you have about prophecy? What about it seems scary, if anything?

Thomas Green says “Prophecy is not about predicting, but about speaking on behalf of another.” How might understanding prophecy as speaking on behalf of another change your perspective on its role in the church?

Read 1 Corinthians 14:1-5. What stands out to you about the passage? What encourages you? What challenges you?

How can you personally cultivate a desire for the gift of prophecy in your spiritual life?

What practical steps can you take to be more open to receiving prophetic insights in your daily life?

How can hearing and speaking messages from God impact your relationships within the Christian community?

Is there anyone in your group or in your life that you recognize has the gift of prophecy? Take a moment to encourage them in this.

Take some time to pray together for requests and anything that came up from the discussion that you feel you would like prayer for.
