The long awaited story is about to come alive once more. The story of Emmanuel, God with us. We have spent the Advent season exploring the stories of how God shows up "Out of the Blue" and shows us the marvelous wonders of love. As we approach the celebration of the age old story of God's love made flesh, God's love came down, and God's love in the unexpected form of a newborn child, we cherish once again the glory that can only belong to God.

This story is an unending story, as God's love still comes to us, remains with us, and gives us hope. And continues to surprise us as Christ shows up in our daily lives in the most surprising ways, showering us with not only love, but also mercy, forgiveness, hope, and peace. Christ calls us to participate in this amazing story, to tell it where ever we go and to whomever we meet. Christ pleads with us to teach it to our children and grandchildren. And beckons us to live it out not just with words, but in our actions. Actions that embody the commandments of Christ to love God and love one another. This story telling with both our words and actions is to be in perpetual motion, not just at Christmas time, but all throughout the year.

One way to tell the story during Christmas is the greeting "Merry Christmas." But not in a way that is a simple greeting, but in a way that shares the story that grounds us in our faith, that identifies us as Christ's people, and shows the world what it means to be Christian. I hope for each of us the time we spend this season tells the Christmas story in way that illuminates with "Glory to God on high" and reflects the love, joy, peace, and hope of Christ Jesus.

May the light of Christ Jesus fill you with hope, peace, joy, and love this Christmas and always. And may you use that light to share the Christmas story with all you meet.

Peace in Christ Jesus,

Pastor Karla

Notes From the Director of Music

"Joy to the World"

This carol, with its uplifting melody and powerful lyrics, has become a hymn (or carol) in our worship services and a symbol of the hope and joy that the Christmas season brings.

The Origin of "Joy to the World"

Written by Isaac Watts in 1719, "Joy to the World" is based on Psalm 98, celebrating the arrival of God's kingdom and the joy that it brings to the world. Interestingly, Watts originally intended the hymn to be a celebration of Christ's second coming, rather than a traditional Christmas carol. Its message of joy and triumph resonates deeply with the themes of Advent, making it fitting for our worship during this season of preparation.

Why is this a carol that can be sung on the Fourth Sunday of Advent?

"Joy to the World" is sometimes sung on the Fourth Sunday of Advent as a way to bridge the anticipation of Christ's birth with the joy that His arrival brings. This Sunday is often characterized by a heightened sense of expectancy, as we prepare our hearts for the celebration of Christmas.

The lyrics remind us that the coming of Christ is not just an event in history but a transformative moment that brings hope and joy to all believers. By singing "Joy to the World," we express our eagerness for the fulfillment of God's promise, celebrating the light that breaks through the darkness of our world.

I encourage each of you to embrace the spirit of this hymn and the other traditional hymns and carols during our worship services. Let it be a reminder of the joy that accompanies our faith and the hope we have in Christ. Whether you sing it with gusto on a Sunday morning, Christmas Eve or a day to reflect on its message during your personal devotion, may "Joy to the World" inspire you to share that joy with others.

Let us come together in worship, lifting our voices in praise and anticipation as we prepare to celebrate the birth of our Savior. May the joy of this season fill your hearts and homes, and may we all look forward to the blessings ahead.

Wishing you a blessed and a joyful Christmas,

William J. Jacavage (Bill)

A very Blessed Christmas and Happy New Year to everyone.

*From the St. John's Staff
& their Families*

<sup>4</sup> Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. <sup>5</sup> Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. (Philippians 4:4-5 NRSVUE)

As I watched the evening news last week, I was struck by one uplifting story. It was about an eventful day at a junior / senior high school, a camera and microphone were placed in a hallway with a placard that asked students to share their "good news" for the day. It was heartwarming to say the least! Some students spoke of test results, sports success, or even that special person who said, "Yes!", to a first date request. But two of the declarations really stood out to me, one was a student who said, "There's a lot of crazy stuff happening in the world and I don't understand half of it, but when I woke up this morning the sun was shining, the day was beautiful and I believe that together we can make the world a better place for everyone.", and the second, "Someone new came to school today and they looked like they needed help so, I showed them to all of their classes and you know what? I think I made a new friend!" These two wonderful teenagers immediately brought these wonderful verses from Philippians to mind. So how about it, as we approach the Advent season, Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say rejoice! Let your gentleness be known to everyone! The Lord is near.

DIAPER DASH

We appreciate the United Way remembering Kate's Kupboard as they shared all the diapers and wipes that they collected.

Matthew 6:26

They say all good things come to those who wait, but the best things come to those who pray. God has perfect timing. Never early. Never late. It takes a little patience. It takes a whole lot of Faith. But it is worth the wait.

Angels Among Us

“When God wants to speak and deal with us,” said Martin Luther, “he does not avail himself of an angel but of parents, or the pastor, or of our neighbor.” Never underestimate how powerfully God can use you in the life of a child, a church member, a friend or a stranger.

The Hebrew word for angel also means “messenger.” You may be specially chosen to deliver to someone the message of God’s love or guidance. Listen intently for what God would have you share with others, then do so faithfully and caringly.

Luther’s Lending Library

THE MEANING OF EPIPHANY

Epiphany, which comes from the Greek word epiphaneia, means “an appearance” or “a revealing.” Centuries ago, the church set aside January 6, the 12th day after Christmas, to mark the revealing of Jesus as Christ to the wise men, who were Gentiles. Jesus’ first followers were Jewish, so the revelation of the divine Christ to the non-Jewish magi reminds us that Jesus came to earth to save the whole world.

Symbols of Epiphany include light, a star, a crown (or three crowns) and a globe or stylized portrayal of the world. The color of Epiphany is green to symbolize life, growth, hope and eternity.

On the church calendar, the Epiphany season lasts until Ash Wednesday, which is determined by the date of Easter.
