

*HOPE is...Believing in yourself, believing in others,
and believing in your dreams!*

DO CHILDREN AGES 7 - 14 LIVE IN YOUR HOME?

THE FAMILY JUSTICE CENTER offers youth programming specifically designed for youth ages 7-14 who have been impacted by family violence and abuse. There is no cost to participate. Through connection and fun, kids experience the power of community and discover new pathways to healing.

PARTICIPANTS LEARN ABOUT:

- Teamwork
- Friendship
- Community
- Goal Setting
- Communication
- Leadership
- Self-Esteem
- Managing Feelings
- AND SO MUCH MORE!

FAMILIES ARE SAYING:

"The FJC changed my life. I can be myself and I don't have to worry what others think of me." - Participant, Age 12

"He has developed more confidence and self-esteem." - Caregiver

"I learned to never give up. I learned that I always have someone to count on even through tough times." - Participant, Age 11

"She's more confident and can talk about how she is feeling." - Caregiver

TO LEARN MORE:

We'd love to talk with you about your family joining us.

Ask a member of our team or contact: Hannah Mould,
Program Coordinator, 336-641-2314, hmould@guilfordcountync.gov

