People: Open our eyes to see Christ clearly and our hearts to receive His truth. Please give us the courage to leave this place transformed, willing to walk a new path.

Hymns During Communion

“Let Us Break Bread Together”

1. Let us break bread together on our knees, let us break bread together on our knees. When I fall on my knees with my face to the rising sun, O Lord, have mercy on me.
2. Let us drink wine together on our knees, let us drink wine together on our knees. When I fall on my knees with my face to the rising sun, O Lord, have mercy on me.
3. Let us praise God together on our knees, let us praise God together on our knees. When I fall on my knees with my face to the rising sun, O Lord, have mercy on me.

“One Bread, One Body”

(Refrain) One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless.

And we, though many throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

1. Gentile or Jew, servant or free, woman or man, no more. (Refrain)
2. Many the gifts, many the works, one in the Lord of all. (Refrain)
3. Grain for the fields, scattered and grown, gathered to one, for all. (Refrain)

Invitation to New Worshipers: Those desiring to unite with our congregation through Baptism, Profession of Faith or Transfer of Membership are encouraged to signify this on the attendance pad, on a visitor card and/or contact our Pastor. We are thankful to have new worshippers. Welcome to the First UMC family.

Weekly Scripture Readings: Isaiah 42: 1-9; Psalm 29; Acts 10: 34-43; Matthew 3: 13-17

Words of Wisdom: “The Magi found Christ not by staying on familiar roads, but by following God’s light into the unknown. Epiphany reminds us that encountering Jesus changes our direction. When we truly meet the Christ child, we do not simply return to life as it was—we listen more closely, trust more deeply, and, when God calls, we go home by another way.”

I want to express my heartfelt thanks for the many thoughtful and meaningful ways you shared your kindness with me during the Christmas season. Each note, card, gift, word of encouragement, and act of love touched my heart more than you may realize. I am deeply humbled by your generosity and grateful beyond words to serve among such a caring and faithful congregation. It is truly a blessing to be your pastor and to walk this journey of faith together. May God continue to bless each of you and the ministry of First Clover United Methodist Church. With gratitude and grace, Pastor Scott

Clover FUMC Christmas Mailboxes: Please be sure to pick up your Christmas cards that you have received. The boxes are on the table located in the lobby hall.

Thank you to the SPRC and congregation for your generous Christmas gift. I appreciated it so much and enjoyed all the cards received as well. Tracie Kite

Following Worship service today: We would be deeply grateful for any who are able to stay for a few minutes after worship this morning to help take down the Christmas decorations throughout our church. Your time and willingness to serve in this simple but meaningful way is a true gift to our church family. Thank you for all you do to help care for our shared sacred space.

Matthew 2: 1-12

Wise Men from the East

2 Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, <sup>[a]</sup>wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, 2 saying, “Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and have come to worship Him.”

3 When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

5 So they said to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet:

6 ‘But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
Are not the least among the rulers of Judah;
For out of you shall come a Ruler
Who will shepherd My people Israel.’ ”

7 Then Herod, when he had secretly called the <sup>[b]</sup>wise men, determined from them what time the star appeared. 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search carefully for the young Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, that I may come and worship Him also.”

9 When they heard the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was. 10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. 11 And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12 Then, being divinely warned in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed for their own country another way.
