

Calvary Book Club

The Book Club at Calvary is meeting on the third Tuesday every other month, starting on January 20th at 1 PM. We will meet in Room 121. Everyone who enjoys reading stimulating, thought-provoking books are invited to meet with the group. We will be using selections from the UWF Reading Program from five diverse categories.

Our first book is one that has been banned from some school libraries- The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas. I have found it to be a very moving and impactful story about sixteen-year-old Starr, who moves between two worlds: the poor neighborhood where she lives and her fancy suburban school, which she qualifies for because of her academic abilities. This uneasy balance is shattered when she witnesses the fatal police shooting of her childhood best friend. What really went down that night? The only person who can answer that is Starr. We are sure to have meaningful conversation about this book. Questions? Contact Mary Alice Dumbauld at 267-264-2363 (cell/text).

Drop off times are by 3:30 PM for frozen items needing preparation and heating by staff and 5:15 PM for meals ready to eat. Sign up in the hallway outside The Square. SCRIPTURE LESSON Luke 5:1-11 (NIV)
One day as Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the people crowding around him and listening to the word of God, he saw at the water's edge two boats, left there by the fishermen, who were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from shore. Then he sat down and taught the people from the boat.

When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water, and let down the nets for a catch."

Simon answered, "Master, we've worked hard all night and haven't caught anything. But because you say so, I will let down the nets."

When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees and said, "Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!" For he and all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken, and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon's partners.

Then Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid; from now on you will catch people." So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him.

No tickets are required—only a reservation to ensure an accurate head count. Sign up at the table in the hallway outside The Square by January 18th.

Sponsored by the UWF. Contact Sue Weikert (717-315-5441) or Romney Noone (717-652-2875) with questions.

Sometimes you just need to talk to someone who is going through a time that you are going through or have gone through. Maybe you just need to get out for a bit and be with people who need to get out too. On January 26th, we are going to have a get together for widows. It will be at 10 AM in The Square and we will have coffee or tea. Please think about some activities we can do together or in groups...at the church or out somewhere! Any idea is welcome! Questions?
