This evening's edition of "A History of Farming" on Salt Spring explores settler agriculture and the evolution of farming on the island.

Led by Usha Rautenbach and Charles Kahn, we will discuss the food systems introduced by settlers — including Hawaiian, Japanese, and Black farmers — and how their labour, skills, and crops shaped Salt Spring's agricultural landscape.

Drawing on archival research, lived experience, and the foundational work Farms Farmers Farming, 1859–1939 by agricultural historian Mort Stratton, the presentation traces Salt Spring's transformation into a regional agricultural hub by the turn of the 20th century.

During this period, the island earned a reputation as a bread basket of the province, with orchardists shipping thousands of forty-pound boxes of apples annually.

A Reading from Isaiah 49. 1-7

Psalm 40 1–12

I waited patiently up-/on the / Lord
Who stooped to / me and / heard my / cry.
God lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the / mire
and / clay,
And set my feet on a high cliff and / made my / footing / sure.

God put a new song / in my / mouth,
A song of / praise / to our / God;
Many shall see and / stand in / awe,
And / put their / trust in the / Lord.

Happy are they who trust / in the / Lord!
They do not resort to evil / spirits or / turn to false / gods.
There is none who can be com-/pared with / you.
Oh, that I could make them known and tell them,
but they are / more than / I can / count.

In sacrifice and offering you / take no / pleasure
(you have given me ears to hear you); burnt-offering / you have / not re-/quired.
And so I said, "Be-/hold, I / come.
In the roll of the book it is / written con-/cerning / me:

"I love to do your will, O my God; your law is deep with-/in my / heart."

I proclaimed righteousness / in the great / congre-/gation;
Behold, I did not restrain my lips; and that, O / Lord, you / know.
Your righteousness have I not / hidden / in my / heart;

I have spoken of your faithfulness and / your de-/liverance;
I have not concealed your love and faithfulness from / the great / congre-/gation.
You are the Lord; do not withhold your com-/passion from / me;
Let your love and your faithfulness / keep me / safe for / ever.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

BAS p. 214-15

All your works praise you, O Lord.
And your faithful servants bless you.

Gracious God we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
May we, who share his body, live his risen life;
we, who drink his cup, bring life to others;
we, whom the Spirit lights, give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so that we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Nicene Creed

BAS p. 188-89

Let us confess the faith, as we say,
We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Prayers of the People

BAS p. 190

Confession and Absolution

BAS p.191

We pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

silence

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us,
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name.
Amen.

The celebrant offers the absolution.
