The Lord's Prayer: Reflections on the Petitions

Join us this Lent as we embark on a gentle 7-week study of the petitions in the Lord's Prayer. This is a course designed for everyone who ever wanted to dig a bit more deeply into the words we pray together every Sunday.

It is an email-based course and material will be sent every Monday, Wednesday and Friday; beginning on Ash Wednesday. In each email you will find some art, a reflection on part of the prayer – beginning with “Our Father”, and a link to some music to help guide your meditation on the topic.

The course is based on the book Prayer by Karl Barth but can be enjoyed with or without reading the book. It is a self-paced and self-directed course with the opportunity to do as much or as little as you wish. We will offer a Zoom meeting every two weeks if you are interested to talk about what we have been studying.

To register please email The Rev. Denise at incumbent@holytrinity.org or leave your name and email address in the book that will be left on the table at the back of the Church. Feel free to share the emails with anyone you think would like to read them!
