

THE ANGLICAN PARISH OF ST. MARK

"Drawing People to the Light"

Part of the Diocese of British Columbia

www.stmarkqualicum.ca <https://bc.anglican.ca>

3RD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY
JANUARY 25, 2026
10:00 AM HOLY COMMUNION

We acknowledge with thanksgiving that we gather to worship on the territories of the Kwakwaka'Wakw, Nuu-Chah-Nulth and Coast Salish Peoples.

We are grateful for our growing relationship with the Qualicum First Nation.

As part of the Anglican Church of Canada, a church of Settlers and First Nations, we commit ourselves to a journey of truth and reconciliation between the indigenous peoples of this land and the non-native peoples of Canada.

Book of Alternative Services

Before the service, please observe silence so that we can be in quiet prayer.

Call to Worship

To those who sit in darkness, light has dawned.

To those who dwell in gloom and despair, God's glorious presence has appeared.

God is indeed our light and our salvation.

We will follow, unafraid, where God and Jesus lead us.

Let us worship our God of light and promise.

Let us celebrate the hope and joy of our salvation.

The Gathering of the Community

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People and also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,

People to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day: Almighty God, by grace alone you call us and accept us in your service. Strengthen us by your Spirit, and make us worthy of your call; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Prayer for the Week of Christian Unity

Join our hearts together that it may be known that we are your children, that your presence will be among us, and we may keep unity in the bonds of peace, which you prepare in the covenant we have with your Son, Jesus Christ.

(Zephania Kameeta, Namibia. In: "Why, O Lord?" © 1986, WCC, p. 47)

O Lord, open my eyes that I may see the need of others, open my ears that I may hear their cries, open my heart so that they need not be without succour.
Let me not be afraid to defend the weak because of the anger of the strong, nor afraid to defend the poor, because of the anger of the rich.

Show me where love and hope and faith are needed, and use me to bring them to these places.

Open my eyes and ears that I may, this coming day,
be able to do some work of peace for you.

The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading: Isaiah 9: 1-4

Psalm 27:1, 4-9 (said responsively by the whole verse)

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

One thing I asked of the LORD; this I seek: to live in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.

For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will set me high on a rock.

Now my head is lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the LORD.

Hear, O LORD, when I cry aloud; be gracious to me and answer me!

"Come," my heart says, "seek his face!" Your face, LORD, do I seek.

Do not hide your face from me. Do not turn your servant away in anger, you who have been my help. Do not cast me off; do not forsake me, O God of my salvation!

The Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23 (Please stand as you are able)

Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: "Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the gentiles--the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned."

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near." As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea for they were fishers. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fisher of people. "Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James, son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

Affirmation of Faith for the Week of Christian Unity

I believe in a Father who so loves his children to wait in silence for their return in order to give them the best robe, kill the fatted calf and celebrate the feast of reconciliation.

I believe in a Spirit whose power is not revealed in the thunder of the gale nor in the dread of the earthquake but in the still, small voice.

I believe in a Son who broke the power of Silence with the piercing cry
"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Dying on the cross he transformed the silence of death into the death of every silence. *(Massimo Aprile, Italy. In: Rete di Liturgia, 1996,

Prayers of the People

People – Lord in your mercy, hear our prayers

Confession

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; God welcomes sinners and invites us to this table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept

Celebrant: Most merciful God,

We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Holy Eucharist

Prayer over the Gifts

Loving God, before the world began you called us. Make holy all we offer you this day, and strengthen us in that calling. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Celebrant God is here.
All: The Spirit is with us.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts and minds.

All: We lift them up to God.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to God the Creator.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise

Celebrant: It is indeed right that we should praise you, God of love, our source and our fulfillment, for you create all things and in you we live and move and have our being. Your wonder is manifest in land and sea and sky.
You made us in your image.
And even though we turn from you, again and again, you call us to yourself, and in every age, promise liberation.
As a mother gathers her children, you embraced a people as your own,
to nurture them in the way of compassionate love.
You sent Jesus among us, incarnate of the Holy Spirit and born of Mary.
Jesus revealed your love for all Creation, and showed us the way of reconciliation.
Having lived among us - Jesus suffered the cross,
Died,
And in rising again became the firstborn of the renewed family.
And so as we gather around your table,
With saints of every age and your beloved creation we raise our voices and sing:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full, are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant To you be glory, almighty God, because on the night before he died, Jesus took bread,
when he had given thanks,
he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.
After supper he took the cup;
when he had given thanks,
he gave it to them and said:
Drink this all of you.
This is my blood of the new covenant, Poured out for you and for many;
do this to remember me.
Great is the mystery of faith.

All: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Celebrant: Recalling Christ's death and resurrection, we ask you to accept this, our sacrifice of praise.
Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine that we may be fed with the body and blood of your Son.
When all of creation groans, unite us in Christ and give us your hope that we might be strengthened to do your work, as your body in the world. Through Christ our Redeemer, in the power of the Spirit, all praise and glory be yours, Almighty God, now and forever. Amen

The Lord's Prayer – (sung)

David Haas

Celebrant We break the bread of life,
And that life is the light of the world.

All God here among us,
Light in the midst of us,
Bring us to light and life. Amen

Invitation to Communion

Come to this table, you who have much faith and you who would like to have more;
you who have been to this sacrament often and you who have not been for a long time;
you who have tried to follow Jesus and you who have failed.
Come, it is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

The Gifts of God for the People of God
Thanks be to God.

The Healing Ministry Prayer Team, please come first for Communion.
If you would prefer Holy Communion brought to you in the pew, please stand and the Eucharistic Ministers will come to you.

Communion at the Altar rail commences

Prayer Ministry

Our healing prayer team invites you to join them to pray or give thanks to God in the narthex (entrance) during or after communion, or in the alcove under the Exit sign after the service. Confidentiality is assured.

Post Communion Hymn: Blessed Jesus, At Your Word CP 559

Prayers after Communion

All Gracious God, our hands have taken holy things; our lives have been nourished by the body of your Son. May we who have eaten at this holy table be strengthened for service in your world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen

Celebrant Glory to God,
All whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing for the Week of Christian Unity

Dear Lord,
may the boldness of your Spirit transform us,
may the gentleness of your Spirit lead us, may the gifts of your Spirit equip us to serve and worship you now and always.
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen
