The Great Commission

¹⁸ Jesus came and told his disciples, “I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth.”¹⁹ Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.
²⁰ Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

Matthew 28:18–20 NLT

For many Christians and churches the Great Commission has become the Great Omission.

Discussion Questions

1. Read Matt 28:18–20 (NLT). How did the sermon link this passage with the Discover Church mission: PRAY, GROW, REACH?
2. How will you prioritise PRAYER as a Life Group this year?
3. How will your Life Group pray weekly for each other's "ones," your 2–3 friends who are open to Jesus?

A still life photograph with a warm, golden-brown color palette. On the left, a dark, elegant wine glass is partially filled with a deep red liquid. To its right, a rustic loaf of bread with a cracked, golden crust sits on a light-colored wooden surface. A single slice of the bread, showing a porous interior, is placed in the foreground. The background is softly blurred, showing a vertical wooden element. The word 'Communion' is written in a large, white, sans-serif font across the lower right portion of the image.
