The Living Word: Our Strength in Every Situation

By Pastor Sattiewhite

Let's dive into Hebrews 4:12-16, where we find a powerful reminder of the strength and comfort we have in God's Word. Let's read it together: "Indeed, the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword piercing until it divides soul and spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest ... Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need." (Hebrews 4:12-16, NRSV)

"We are not alone."

OCTOBER 14, 2024

"Indigenous peoples are a beacon of resilience, strength, and perseverance as well as a source of incredible contributions."

“God sees us fully, knows us intimately, and loves us.”

So, as we reflect on Hebrews 4:12-14, let's remember that God's Word is alive and powerful. It cuts through our struggles and offers us hope. God sees us fully, knows us intimately, and loves us unconditionally. And with Jesus as our high priest, we can face life's challenges with confidence. Let us hold on to our faith, knowing that we're not alone in this journey. Let the living Word guide, comfort, and empower us to live boldly in His grace.

Truth: We're not alone in this journey!

THE GLASSES OF TRUTH

In a small town, there was a wise old optometrist named Mr. Grant. He had a special pair of glasses that he used to help people see more clearly—not just their physical surroundings, but also their inner thoughts and feelings. One day, a young woman named Emily came to his office. She was feeling lost and confused about her life decisions. As she sat in the chair, she shared her worries: “I don't know what I'm meant to do. I feel so overwhelmed by everything around me.” Mr. Grant listened intently and then said, “I have something that might help you.” He reached for the special glasses and handed them to Emily. “Put these on.”

The glasses, like the Bible reveals the truth.
