

Held By His Heart

Opening Question

When have you felt deeply remembered or carried by someone? How does that help you understand Jesus carrying believers in His heart?

Text Exploration

1. The Message That Unites (John 17:20–21)

λόγος (logos) — “word, message, revealed truth”

- What is the role of God’s Word in unity?

- How does truth precede unity?

πιστεύω (pisteuō) — “to trust, rely upon”

- Why does Jesus link unity to the world believing?

2. The Glory That Unites (John 17:22–23)

δόξα (doxa) — “glory, honor, revealed worth”

תִּבְּרֵא (kābōd) — “weight, substance, heaviness”

- How does the cross-display God’s glory?

- What does it mean that believers share in Christ’s glory?

δίδωμι (didōmi) — “to give freely”

- Why is unity described as a gift rather than an achievement?

3. The Love That Brings Us Home (John 17:24–26)

θέλω (thelō) — “to desire, to long for”

- What does it mean that Jesus longs for us to be with Him?

- How does seeing Christ’s glory shape Christian hope?
