Psalm 66

What stood out to you in the teaching and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

Because we are born worshippers, everyone on earth will worship someone or something. Why is the exclusive worship of the one, true God so important? What will happen if we worship and serve created things rather than the creator?

Have you ever experienced testing in your life like the psalmist in verses 10-12? How does God's sovereignty over trials influence how you see hardships in our lives?

How have you seen God work in your life? In the past? In the present? Share a testimony of what God has done for your soul.

How does cherishing iniquity in our hearts affect our prayers and our relationship with God?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?
