CARE GROUPS

Our 2026 Care Group Calendar is now available in the church office and lobby. Leaders for this year's groups include Chris & Holly Hallmark (Group 1); George & Melodie Heath (Group 2); Cody & Jazmin Poe (Group 3); and Marty & Cari Rowe (Group 4). We appreciate Tony Milam for his oversight of our Care Groups program. Besides giving us opportunities for fellowship, our Care Groups do an excellent job providing for the needs of our members from time to time. Each member at Gloster Street is assigned to one of the four groups. Make your plans to participate.

ABOUT THE WEATHER

The recent winter storm impacted our area in a variety of ways. Many individuals lost power; some also lost water. We are thankful for the work being done by our local utility companies to help restore these losses. Because of the storm, only a small number of people were able to worship in person this past Sunday. Although we appreciate the livestream, nothing can replace being with our brethren. We look forward to being back together this coming week.

When inclement weather strikes, please consider the following. First, be sure to check on your brothers and sisters in Christ. As needs arise, please share those with any of our elders, deacons, or ministers. We can only help one another if we are aware of what needs to be done. Second, know that the church office will communicate with you about our meeting schedule.

ARE YOU READING?

We are reading the Gospel of Matthew during the first three months of 2026. In this quarter, we are focusing on Listening to Jesus. I hope you will join us!

May God Bless You All!

RESPECTING THE SON

by Chad Ramsey

In Jesus's parable of the Wicked Vinedressers (Mark 12:1-11), He described how the requests of an owner of a vineyard were ignored and rejected by tenants who leased his farm. Sending servant after servant, only to find them either beaten or killed, the owner determined to send his son and stated, "They will respect my son" (Mark 12:6). But instead of showing respect to the son, Mark wrote: "But those vinedressers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' So they took him and killed him and cast him out of the vineyard" (Mark 12:7-8).

The point of this parable was to describe the way the Jewish leaders had treated the messengers of God in the past, and how they would treat Jesus—the Son of God—in the near future. It is worth noting that Stephen emphasized this point when he addressed the Jews. He asked: "Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold the coming of the Just One, of whom you now have become the betrayers and murderers" (Acts 7:52).

We should not conclude God did not expect His Son to be rejected, for the passage reveals He did. As Mark 12:10 states: "Have you not even read this Scripture: 'The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.'" But it is still worth noting that as the father in the parable expected the tenants to respect his son, so God expected men to respect Jesus. This, of course, is an expectation God has for us as well. We must respect Jesus Christ, which means we must be willing to obey His commands. Do you respect the Son? Have you obeyed Him?

— JUST FOR FUN —

Answer the following questions from Exodus 5:

1. To whom do Moses and Aaron go when chapter 5 begins?
2. What did they tell him from God?
3. What was Pharaoh's reply?
4. What did Pharaoh do to the children of Israel due to Moses's request?
5. What did the people of Israel do, verse 15?
6. What was Pharaoh's reply, verse 17?
7. What did the people tell Moses and Aaron, verses 20-21?
8. What did Moses then say to God, verses 22-23?

Last week's answers: 1. They won't believe me, 2. Rod becomes a serpent, 3. Hand becomes leprous, 4. That Moses was from God and thus his message was from God, 5. I am not eloquent, 6. Use Aaron to talk for you, 7. Zipporah and their son, 8. 40 years, 9. Elders of children of Israel, 10. They believed.
