

Love each other just as I have loved you.

— John 13:34 (CEB)

Jesus commands us to love _____.

This is how everyone will know that you are my disciples,
when you love each other. — John 13:35 (CEB)

Love is formed and grow in _____.

Love prepares us to be _____.

Reflection Questions:

- † Who might you show love to this week?
- † How can this community shape the way you show love?
- † Where is God prompting you to show love through this congregation?

Challenge

Take one intentional step to connect in Christian community. You can reach out, reconnect, or recommit to a practice that helps you grow with others.

Daily Prayer

Faithful God, I open my life to You and to others today. Shape my love so it reflects the way Jesus loves, soften my heart where I pull away or grow guarded, and guide my relationships so they bear Your grace. Teach me to walk with others in patience and compassion, trusting that You are forming us together in love. Amen.
