Thrive

Thrive Faith Formation Tip - As we begin Black History Month, let's take time to explore and reflect on the church's role in Black history. One way to do this is to commit to learning from voices that have shaped both the Black experience and the broader Christian tradition. For example, choose two Black theologians—one historical and one contemporary—and study how their theological insights have influenced not only Black history but also the life and witness of the institutional church. If you have young children, consider reading one of these picture books together: God's Very Good Idea by Trillia Newbell or Let it Shine by Ashley Bryan.
