

Shalom Tidings

Fourth Sunday after Epiphany: February 1, 2026

[Jesus said,] "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy." –Matthew 5:7

This week at Shalom:

WORSHIP AT SHALOM: Come join us for a contemporary worship service at 9:30 am led by Sam and the Spirit of Shalom Band! Enjoy treats and fellowship afterward in our Community Room. Seekers and guests are invited!

SERMON: When Jesus spoke the beatitudes, he was living in just as much of a vengeance-obsessed world as we are. It would have been natural for him to stir up resentment against the Roman occupiers, as other Jewish politicians had done. Yet, the kingdom Jesus proclaims is radically different. How does Jesus break us out of our cycles of resentment and retribution? How does he give us rest from the madness of our world? Pastor David preaches "The Hidden Power of Mercy" based on Micah 6:8 and Matthew 5:1-12.

COUNCIL PACKETS We have a copy of the latest church council meeting packet available in the church office. It includes the previous month reports and the agenda. Anyone may read the minutes, but we ask that they not be removed from the office. Also if preferred, they can be emailed to you by request. Council meets the third Monday of each month at 5:30 pm. The meeting is open if anyone wanted to attend.

HOSPITALITY THIS SUNDAY: Dave & Barb Beyer, Carolyn Carlson, Ryan & Angie Erickson.

TRANSPORTATION NEEDS: Sometimes our members need transportation to our Sunday service. If you are available to provide transportation, please provide your name and phone number to the church office. To request transportation to church services, please contact the church office. This service can help people stay connected to Shalom.

KONX Radio Ministry Seeks Programming Proposals and Financial Support

KONX is reaching out to our congregations, organizations, and community members, for program proposals that further this local radio ministry.

Programming may include music, the arts, worship services, teaching, discussion, education, and information programming, but all should foster connection to our friends and neighbors and build a better community together, following the teachings and examples of Jesus Christ and telling those in our midst they are all welcomed, cared for, and loved.

KONX wants to help bring the Good News to friends and neighbors right here in Alexandria and the surrounding area, through the power of collaboration of people of faith in our community,

If you are interested in making a program proposal for airing on KONX, please tell KONX more about it, and how it will advance the goals of the ministry in connecting our community, by filling out this form and returning it to KONX at office@shalomlutheran.org or by mail or in person to Shalom Lutheran Church, 681 Voyager Drive, in Alexandria. We look forward to hearing more about how you feel people of faith can connect our community!

And if you or your organization hasn't already, we would ask that you prayerfully consider providing or pledging financial support to the KONX ministry. Donations are tax-deductible, and can be sent to KONX care of Shalom Lutheran Church. We appreciate any support you can give in helping us carry out our mission in the community.

Please reach out to Shalom Lutheran church by calling 320-762-8641 or email office@shalomlutheran.org for more information and to find out how to help.

Around the Synod and ELCA:

The Minnesota bishops recently released a video featuring the ELCA Presiding Bishop Yehiel Curry, offering a message of hope, faith, and love for the church and our communities. In a time marked by uncertainty and division, this resource invites reflection on how we are called to live as neighbors rooted in God's love.
