

PROJECT NAVAJO CHRISTMAS

By: Rev. Alison Yates

Another Project Navajo Christmas is complete! Pastor Jim Yates, director of Action Missions would like to thank everyone who was involved in this year's project. This is the 24th year for Action Missions to be involved in this Christmastime project on the Navajo Reservation.

Action Missions traveled with teams to rural Navajo churches and were privileged to share the gospel with almost 700 Navajo children and their families. This outreach is designed to enable and empower the local church and place new converts in contact with a local Pastor and church body who can love and disciple them. It truly is amazing that something so simple as a toy can be a tool that makes a difference in the lives of hurting people! We have experienced the fruit of this project year after year, and have seen new families grow in the Lord!

We are so thankful for the teams that traveled to the Navajo Nation to be a part of the outreaches. We had a large, hardworking, ministry-minded FGCI youth group the first weekend. What a great team! Thank you Sister Liz Majors and Brother Jonathon Leonard for bringing them!

We were also especially blessed to have our FGCI General Superintendent Rev. Travis Watkins, as well as our FGCI Missions Field Rep Rev. Bruce Stance travel with us and really get behind the vision for the Navajo people!

Again, thank you to everyone who traveled with us, donated toys and financial contributions, and prayed for this annual project! We are already excited about this coming year's project, so reach out if you would like to be involved!
