

THIS WEEK IN WORSHIP

Senior Pastor, Steve Autrey

It has been many years since our region experienced sustained winter weather. Typically, we might have a few storms, but extended periods of frozen precipitation have become more of a southern legend. As someone who grew up in the NC mountains, I remember the winter of 1985-86 vividly; it was especially challenging. My grandmother Autrey used to say, "When the snow stays on the ground, it is waiting for more to come join it." That winter, the snow lingered for weeks, and more and more fell, leaving only a few school days in January and February. As I look out my window this Wednesday, I see that the sleet and ice from this past Sunday are still present, seemingly anticipating more frozen precipitation this weekend.

This might mean that we have to cancel church services again this Sunday, but we'll have to wait and see what the forecast brings. According to meteorologist Brad Panovich, we should be prepared for potentially hazardous driving conditions on Saturday and Sunday. If we do need to cancel services, I will post a message online by 9 a.m. on Sunday.

For those in our community who are accustomed to winter weather, it might be puzzling why we would cancel church. Here are the reasons behind it:

- We prioritize safety and want to avoid any injuries, as walking to church can be just as dangerous as driving.
- We lack the necessary resources to clear snow and ice from our parking lots and sidewalks.
- Engaging in snow removal can damage surfaces and lead to costly repairs.
- We typically do not receive enough snow or ice to warrant extensive snow removal services.
- Lastly, we can provide an online message that allows us to worship from home.

Please pay attention to the weather, and if another winter storm occurs, we will make a church-wide announcement sometime on Saturday. I also encourage you to support the church's ministries financially. Missing one Sunday's offering is challenging, but missing two can be tough, as our expenses continue regardless of the weather. If you can, please consider giving online or by mailing your contribution to DUMC, Box 661, Denver, NC 28037.

This week's message focuses on the Old Testament prophet Micah (Micah 6:6-8). We are still in the season of Epiphany, during which we explore how God is revealed in the world. Rather than pointing to mysterious wise men or a miraculous star, or even a divine voice at Jesus' baptism, Micah tells us that God is made known to us through our actions. It is through us that God shines a light in a world filled with chaos and pain. Join us this Sunday—either in person or online—as we discuss how this all comes together.

Blessings,
Pastor Steve

GIVING REPORT

updated financial news

For questions about giving, please reach out to Cameron Wilson at finance@denverumc.org. We appreciate your generosity and support!

2025 GIVING STATEMENTS

2025 giving statements will be emailed to you no later than Saturday, January 31, 2026.

Please make sure to update your email address in Elexio at <https://denverumc.elexiochms.com/user/login>.

If you'd rather have your giving statement mailed to you, or if you have any trouble getting signed into Elexio, please email Cameron Wilson at finance@denverumc.org. Thank you!

We express our sincere gratitude to all of our faithful contributors who gave to the Ministry Operations Budget in 2025. Our annual budget income was $1,262,040, while our total budget expenses ended at $1,261,417. The Church Council made the decision to take the surplus of approximately $623 and apply it towards the principal balance on our loan for the Cedar Street property. Please continue to support the ministries of Denver UMC by giving to the Ministry Operations Budget.
THANK YOU!

Give Now

6 for '26

We are well into 2026, and we invite you to be part of our 6 for '26 campaign.

What is 6 for '26? It's a simple, shared commitment. We're asking each person who calls DUMC home to consider giving an additional $6 per week through the remainder of the year.

If you are already a faithful giver—thank you. Your generosity sustains our ministry, and we are deeply grateful. If you're able, please consider adding just $6 per week to your regular offering.

If you haven't given before, 6 for '26 is an easy and meaningful place to start. It's a small step that allows you to participate in the work of Christ through our church and begin actively stewarding the gifts God has entrusted to you.

Here's the remarkable part: if we do this together, those $6 commitments add up to approximately $130,000 in additional ministry funding for 2026—resources that will directly support worship, mission, outreach, and care in our community.

Small gifts, shared faithfully, can make a powerful difference. Thank you for prayerfully considering how you might be part of 6 for '26.

Faith,

Table Talk and Wednesday Night Classes

Take a midweek break and join us for Wednesday night dinner, Table Talk, in the FLC from 5:30-6:30 pm for 10 weeks! Enjoy a delicious meal, great conversation, and meaningful fellowship with your church family. This is a perfect time to connect, share, and grow together. Bring your appetite and your heart—there's a seat at the table just for you!

Dinner:

- $5 per person
- $20 max per family

Following dinner, stay for one of our two classes, The Leadership Discipleship Experience, or a study of Matthew's Gospel. See below for more information. If you have any questions, please email discipleship@denverumc.org.

J.O.Y. Group Meeting, February 12

All JOY members and anyone over 50 years old are invited to our next senior group meeting at 11 a.m. on Thursday, February 12th, in the CORC! A representative from Carolina Caring will speak to our group about the services they offer to area senior citizens! Lunch will be provided. Please contact rosannekocher@gmail.com for further information about our senior group.

Winter Weather Alert

Once again, there is the possibility of a severe winter storm on Saturday. We will make a church-wide announcement through texting and social media on Saturday, whether or not in-person services will be held on Sunday morning. If services are canceled, an online sermon will be posted on Sunday morning by 9:00 a.m.

Please remember to support the church's ministries financially. Our expenses continue regardless of the weather. If you can, please consider giving online or mailing your contribution to DUMC, Box 661, Denver, NC 28037.

Sunday Morning Study Opportunity Sundays, 10:00 a.m. in the CORC

Have you ever wondered what it means to be a United Methodist? What do we believe? What is our theology, and where did this denomination come from? The Open Circle class will begin exploring these questions on January 18. Everyone is invited to join this time as Pastor Steve leads the conversation. The time starts on Sunday mornings at 10 a.m. in the CORC (old fellowship hall), with a time of fellowship, followed by teaching from 10:10 a.m. until 10:50 a.m. If you are new to DUMC and looking to get connected with others, this is a great way to meet new people and learn about the church. No need to sign up, simply show up!

Leadership Discipleship Experience #4 Wednesdays, 6:45 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. in the CORC

The Leadership Discipleship Experience is a ten-week journey designed to move beyond surface-level faith and into deep, life-changing transformation. Over the course of this experience, you will

- Discover your God-given purpose
- Learn how to clearly hear and discern God's voice
- Identify and use your spiritual gifts to serve alongside others in community

The Gospel of Matthew

Wednesdays, 6:45 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. in the Chapel

This study of the Gospel of Matthew, taught by Pastor Steve, is designed to engage participants in conversation, allowing us to learn from one another. Please bring your Bible and an inquiring mind as we seek to discern how God is speaking to us today through Holy Scripture.

One note: For those who feel like they do not know the Bible well enough to come to an open study, please do not shy away. The point is for everyone to learn together, regardless of biblical knowledge!

Wednesday Bible Study

The WOW Bible study has a new study on Acts led by Michell Turner. All are welcome, and they meet on Wednesday mornings at 10:00 a.m. in the Chapel. Any questions, contact Rachelle Roberts at Orachelle@hotmail.com.
