

Musings along the way

By Pastor Henry

Dear Church Family,
With the start of February, we prepare to move from Epiphany into the season of Lent. Beginning on Ash Wednesday, February 18, these forty days lead us toward Easter. It is a sacred time for self-reflection and spiritual renewal, offering us a chance to refocus our hearts and grow closer to God.

While the Bible doesn't explicitly command us to observe Lent, the tradition is deeply rooted in scriptural themes of reflection and renewal, drawing inspiration from passages like Job (42:6), the prophets (Joel 2:12-13), and the teachings of Jesus (Matthew 4:1-11, 6:16-18). The practice took shape in the fourth century, as the early church sought a meaningful way to help believers prepare their hearts for the joy of Easter Sunday.

As preparation for Easter, during Lent we ask Jesus to "walk with me," as the old spiritual I Want Jesus to Walk with Me suggests. But as we join him on the road to the cross, we realize it isn't an easy journey. While many of us focus on "giving up" a favorite food or a simple comfort, Lent is about so much more than a simple sacrifice. It is an intentional season of grounding ourselves in God's presence, and an invitation to move beyond the surface and enter into a deeper, more connected relationship with God.

To begin our Lenten journey together, please join us for an Ash Wednesday service on February 18 at 5:00 p.m. The service will be held at Community Mennonite Fellowship (290 Park Avenue, Corning.)

me," ...

We are also looking forward to an ecumenical Lenten study at the same location; we will share more details as they become available. As you embark on your Lenten journey, I encourage you to lean into spiritual disciplines such as prayer, silent meditation, Bible reading, worship, giving, and even fasting (if you can). Whether through service or a Lenten devotional, this season is an opportune time to refocus on what truly matters.

Yours for the journey,
Pastor Henry

Our church has a history of building community and friendships through Small Group Dinners meant to foster feelings of genuine connection. Depending on the hosts' preference, the meal is usually a simple soup, bread, and salad with six to eight attendees. Someone volunteers to bring dessert.

- The dinners are open to everyone and anyone.
- There is often an "after dinner topic" for discussion.
- This is an ongoing outreach. We hope to schedule more as our long winter progresses.
- If you would like to host dinner, please let me know. (phone number below)
- Transportation is available if needed.

Signup at the bulletin board outside the kitchen and/or call Margo Brown at 607-725-0264.

Signup sheets will be up after the first of the year. Updates to follow.
