Outreach Lunch February 8

COMMIT is a Stratford-based team that works with community leaders in an impoverished part of Nicaragua. COMMIT sends teams twice a year to the same area to work on diverse projects that support growth, well-being, and community development. We have a direct link to COMMIT through one of it's founders, parishioner Dr. Doug Thompson. At the lunch, right after the 11:00 am service, we'll hear from Doug and/or other team members about their recent mission. The menu will be Mexican/Latin American. All free-will donations received will go to COMMIT's work. Good food, good fellowship and good work! Don't miss it!

The Stratford Anglican's Library – What's the Big Idea?

If you would like to make an Altar Flower Dedication, it is quite simple! You can fill your name out on the sheet posted on the bulletin board in the Narthex. Alternatively, you can call the office at 519-271-3572 (ext. 101) or e-mail office@stjamesstratford.ca. Please note that we can have two people signed up on the same day. Chimes Concerts

We received a lovely note from Wendy who had a joyous moment when she heard the song "Windy" playing during last Wednesday's chime concert! See her words below:

“Back in the 60's as a child I was in the Children's Hospital in London for 3 months. During that time the nurses would bring us little patients out to the area where the hifi stereo was. At 6:00 there was a radio show on with music and the nurses would sing and dance with us. One of the songs was Windy which they called me however my name was Wendy. It's probably why I became a nurse. The bells were quiet all summer and it was so lovely to hear them playing Christmas carols right before Christmas. I only moved here 6 months ago and as a senior it takes a bit to find your footing. Today at noon while I was walking my dog, I heard the bells chiming the song Windy. I sang, I cried, I skipped and I felt like I belonged. Thank you, St. James, for opening your arms with delightful songs at noon by the bells.”

Prayers of the People

For those wishing to add a name to the prayer list, please fill out a “Prayer Request” form at the back of the church. Alternatively, you can call the office 519-271-3572 ext. 101 or e-mail office@stjamesstratford.ca
