

The Cornerstone

The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner. This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

Psalm 118:22-23

VOLUME LXIV NUMBER 6

February 5, 2026

February is a month of love viewed through our hearts. It's a month filled with messages of love; from candy to flowers, from loving expressions of gifts and attention to love letters. It is a month where we acknowledge our love for our pets and our partners, our favorite foods, our family and our friends, our most binged TV shows, our favorite activities and Hobbies, AND our God. Or do we?

Between busy schedules, long days, and the stresses of daily life our expressions of love can get lost. February invites us into a season of examination where our love that may have become complacent, and a time of action that may be needed in our relationships and in our faith. Reflecting on love and understanding the love we have for family, neighbor, and God can reinvigorate our actions of love that have rippling effects in our world and create an attitude of change.

So, what would it look like to explore more deeply the meanings behind the word LOVE. What would it look like to study what the Bible says about LOVE. For these first three weeks of Feb., our worship series; More Love will examine the Greek words for love: Eros - romantic love for a partner (Feb. 1), Phileo & Storge – love for family & friends (Feb. 8), and Agape – self-less love as experienced in God's love for us (Feb. 15). Our first worship service on Eros Love may be viewed on FUMCO's Facebook page or YouTube.

I invite you to join me in worship to listen how scripture leads us in the complexity of love. Until Sunday, I leave you with this prayer...

Vessel of Your Love

by Steve Garnaas-Holmes, Aug. 31, 2018

Beloved, Beloving, may I be a vessel of your love today.

*I am flawed and inadequate,
but you have chosen to bear your love into the world through me.*

*No matter my shame or fear,
no matter the resistance of others,
let your love shine in me.*

*To all, the intimate and the stranger,
ally and enemy, welcoming and bristly,
let me convey your love,*

for their sake (which is your sake), not my own.

*Not my own skinny passion,
but your deep, life-giving love
flows through me each moment.*

May I fill to overflowing with you for the sake of the world. Amen

February 2026 Zoom Prayer Meeting for Laity and Clergy

So much is happening in our world, and many days I am lost as to what God wishes me to do. One day, things seemed so overwhelming I found myself crying. As the tears began to fall, I was reminded that while I am a person of hope, I am only human. I surrendered to my own expectations and allowed myself to give in to my sadness.

In the shortest verse of Scripture we are given a powerful truth:

“Jesus wept.”

Jesus did not rush past sorrow or pretend it was not there. He stood in the midst of loss and let love be seen in his tears.

Jesus came as one of us to show us how to live in times and places when things are not as we might hope. Jesus suffered and yet still chose love. Love is both beautiful and sometimes tattered. Love can be seen in the messiness of birth and the brokenness of death. It was found in Jesus’ healing and performing miracles, as well as the agony of the cross.

The sharing of our wounds enables us to heal; it also helps others to heal when they know we have also suffered. It can be the way that we bear one another’s burdens and facilitate healing; this is love at work among us.

As Christians, we are not called to unrealistic expectations; we need space to be human, to slow down, to listen, and to allow the love of God to shape how we live and serve. It is our hope that these prayer sessions will offer us just that opportunity.

When we gather to pray, we come not as people who have it all together, but as people who trust that God meets us even in our tears and carries us into love for the world.

Join Us in Prayer

You are invited to gather with pastors and laity from across GNJ for shared prayer on Zoom. All are welcome.
