BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Black Methodist history is a powerful testament to the pursuit of justice and the commitment to discipleship. This journey reflects the struggles and triumphs of a community that has sought equality and understanding within the framework of faith. By noting pivotal figures like "Black Harry" Hosier, the Christmas Conference in Baltimore in 1784, and historically Black colleges... we see that the legacy of Black Methodism inspires movements and highlights resilience.

Announcements & Greeting

Prelude Acolytes: Cayden Smeltzer and Holden Peters

Invocation

Call to Worship Psalm 126 UMH 847

¹When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
we were like those who dream.

²Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy;

then they said among the nations,
"The Lord has done great things for them."

³The Lord has done great things for us, and we are glad.
