Love's Redemption

By Michael Orr

You were loved from your beginning,
Stitched in womb with strong intent,
Breath of life and soul delivered,
Clay in hand His love was sent.

Never mind the broken pieces,
Pay no heed to words of shame,
For the voice of love's redemption,
Is the One who calls your name.

We all fumble in the darkness,
Hearts of hurt where wicked lands,
Worth and wonder crushed and mangled,
By the work of human hands.

Never mind their base denial,
No more begging for a cup,
For the source of love's redemption,
Is the One who fills you up.

Light and life may lose its sparkle,
In the counting of your days,
Weary wandering may drain you,
Where the deepest portion stays.

Never mind this steady wounding,
Give no thought to life's demand,
For the joy of love's redemption,
Is the One who holds your hand.

Trading gravel for a glory,
Please receive this withered soul,
Guide, direct me in the making,
Where the broken may be whole.

Never mind my hesitation,
Let this doubt be cast away,
For the face of love's redemption,
Is the One I choose today.
