FROM THE PASTOR

As much of America today will be focused on Super Bowl 60 with the Patriots and Seahawks, I hope we will focus on the Lord Jesus Christ. I have been reading much about the faith of some of the ball players that will be on a football field today; Men like TreVeyon Henderson and Cooper Kupp and the Bible studies taking place among the Seahawk players. And though, please do not misunderstand, I am thankful for people who will take any stand for Jesus Christ and proclaim His name, I am amazed that with the number of claiming Christians involved with the Super Bowl, that we have ended up with Bad Bunny -- a music artist known for flaunting sexuality, who reportedly plans to dress in drag and promote a "queer" LGBT agenda during the half-time show. I am appalled that players, executives and people that claim such strong faith in Christ would even be a part of something that would have such a presentation. I often wonder, where is the stand that comes with a price tag?

Supposedly, Turning Point USA has announced an alternative "All American Halftime Show" and if it is at the very least, patriotic, I guess we must be grateful. But at the end of the day, where are these people of faith taking their stand having all of their heart dedicated to their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ?

It amazes me that these players of faith have not taken a stand on the fact that the Super Bowl is even played on the Lord's Day. It goes back to having Jesus as a token in our life rather than being our Lord!

On All Heart Sunday, this is what I believe He is looking for, that we would "love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind."
