

PROJECT NAVAJO CHRISTMAS 2025..

By: Rev. Jim Yates Action Missions Director

Project Navajo Christmas 2025 is approaching fast! 🎁

Action Missions is once again preparing to share new toys and the gospel with Navajo children and their families! Help us remind them that they are not forgotten!

You can be involved in this annual project by:

a.) organizing a toy drive at your church and/or organization.

b.) The donation of new toys.

c.) Contributing financially to this project for the purchase of toys and travel expenses.

d.) Traveling with the toy distribution team!

e.) Praying for this project to be effective!

If you are interested in being a part of Project Navajo Christmas 2025, call or text Brother Jim at (417)321-1714

OKLAHOMA STATE MEETING

By: Rev. Jerrico Martin, Oklahoma State Superintendent

Oklahoma FGCI held a state meeting in Tulsa, Oklahoma November 8, 2025 at The Dwelling Place Church. We are grateful for all who attended. The meeting started with a breakfast fellowship and then we moved into a time of worship, which was led by our special guest, Pastor Chris Embry of Tulsa; then we had a time of prayer and encouragement from The Word. We were blessed to have our General Superintendent, Travis Watkins, encourage those in attendance to use this opportunity to "rise and build!" (Nehemiah 2:18). We also welcomed and introduced, our two newest FGCI members Emani Martin and Joseph Vandewege, as they are newly credentialed Exhorters. We had a surprise "drop in" from Bro. Jim & Sis. Alison Yates and they shared on the Navajo Christmas Outreach as well as missions in Uganda. We also heard from other national leaders who were in attendance Bro. William Allen our General Secretary-Treasurer, as well as Oklahoma's own Sis. Jean Criddle, FGCI's National Ladies President. The Meeting concluded with the annual business meeting, with Bro. Jerrico Martin being elected to serve as State Superintendent, Sis. Amber was appointed to serve as state Secretary-Treasurer and Bro, Mark Lavine will continue as state Presbyter. We thank everyone who attended and made this meeting possible and invite everyone to join us for our FGCI Oklahoma Conference May 29 - 30, 2026.

THE ECHOES INTERVIEW

We recently sat down with Zachary Visio for the most recent Echoes Interviews Podcast. Zach is not a FGCI minister or even a minister at all but has an incredible story of redemption that needs to be told. After a childhood of atheism, years of addiction, homelessness, a near death experience, and a life many would call "too far gone" someone, led by the Holy Spirit gave Zach a life changing proposition. The Holy Spirit told a stranger "ask him (Zach) to come live with you to get off the street". Now Zach has 3 jobs, a vehicle, is active in a FGCI church, and has been free from meth for over a year. Anytime there is a chance to tell what God has done in his life Zach shares his story. This is a two-part interview you don't want to miss. Find part 1 on the FGCI youtube now.

PHILIPPINES TYPHOON

By: Rev. Joe Stratton FGCI Disaster Relief Director

I wanted to share this urgent update from Pastor Jebz and Windy Compesino in the Philippines.

A powerful storm just hit their region, and the destruction is overwhelming – homes torn apart, roofs ripped away, banana and coconut trees knocked down, and families standing in the wreckage with nowhere to go. The need for help is very real and immediate.

As part of FGCI Disaster Relief, we're stepping in to support our missionary hub and get emergency food, clean water, and temporary shelter to families who lost everything.

If you feel led to give, please visit

👉 <https://fgci.us/give>

Every contribution – no matter the size – goes directly toward helping the families that Pastor Jebz and Windy serve on the ground.

Please also keep them, their team, and every affected family in prayer. They are doing everything they can with what little they have.

Thank you for standing with us, and for standing with the Philippines. ❤️
