Lenten Vespers Theme: "Reacting in Fear, Responding in Hope"

Details: With the world seemingly in chaos around us, and the call to seek justice, do mercy and walk humbly during Lent, we can get lost in it all. It is only natural to struggle with how to feel and what to do. We innately react in fear. Our God does not leave us there and responds to our fear with hope. Hope that we are invited to participate in for the betterment of the world and for the proclamation of the Gospel News.

Lenten Bible Study: "Breaking Our Hearts of Stone"

Details: Journey through the book of Exodus in this 6-part series led by Pastor Joel. We will reflect on the stories of Moses and the Israelite peoples. We will journey through their hardships and dreams of hope. As we go, we will discern the hardness of Pharaoh's heart and the peoples' hearts. Hearts that need chiseling and renewing to live into the love, faith, and hope that our God inspires.

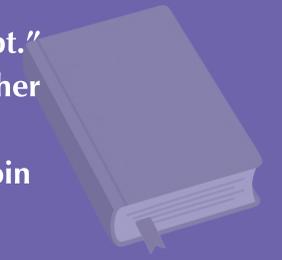

Lenten Prayer Service

On March 26th we will gather for a time of grieving, personal prayer, and reflection together through worship as we do well during the Lenten Season. After the service, the group will get dinner together at a local restaurant where they can share in conversation, support one another, and participate in healing as group in hope.

OSLC Memoir Reading Club

Memoir Club's next read is "Devout: A Memoir of Doubt." In it, Anna Gazmarian explores her journey reconciling her bipolar disorder with Evangelical faith, challenging religious views of mental illness as spiritual affliction. Join Nathaniel Porter as he leads us through this faithful venture this Lent.

The Steve Brown Requiem

Join us at 4:00 on Palm Sunday (March 29, 2026) as we perform the North American premiere of the late Steve Brown's setting of the Requiem Mass, which he wrote in late 1978 while stationed in Brussels, Belgium. In addition to the OSLC Choir, community members who knew Steve are also joining in this effort. This is a rare opportunity you don't want to miss! Admission is free, though donations for our Fine Arts Fund will be graciously accepted.
