Missions

Eric & Hannah (serving in with MAF in SE Asia) write: "Mr Chen (our Facilities Manager) is taking one of our English courses, and I have started helping him with his English. One day he asked me what 'R.I.P.' meant. This led to a conversation about our beliefs about the afterlife. At one point he said, 'All religions teach that if you do good, you will go to heaven.' I was able to explain that Jesus teaches that we are sinners, and we can't do enough good things to get to heaven. But if we believe in Him, He will make us clean and we can go to heaven. Ask our Father for more opportunities to talk with Mr. Chen about what He has done for us!"

Copies of letters from our sponsored missionaries are available by the Mission display in the foyer.

Dorothy Garriott thanks everyone for their prayers. Her surgeon has told her that they are waiting on time and preparations before her surgery.
