

Men's Ministry – Volunteer Role Description

Welcome to the Team

We are so excited that you are joining our team! We know you are generously giving up your time to love on, serve, and teach the next generation of believers, so we thank you for serving. Sundays could not happen without you. Please read the job description below so you know what to expect when you serve.

Ministry Overview

The Men's Ministry at FCC exists to help men grow in their relationship with Jesus Christ, build strong connections with one another, and live out their faith through service and discipleship. This team helps plan and support a couple of men's ministry events each year—such as breakfasts, retreats, or hangouts—and helps organize outreach and service projects in the community. Your presence and leadership make a lasting impact on the lives of men and those we serve.

Qualifications

- A heart for men's discipleship, community, and outreach
- Willingness to be part of a team and support a shared vision
- Reliability and follow-through on assigned tasks

Responsibilities

- Collaborate with the team to plan and support 2–4 men's events annually
- Assist in organizing and participating in community outreach/service projects
- Help with logistics such as event setup, teardown, and hospitality
- Invite and encourage other men to get connected and involved
- Pray for the men in the church and seek ways to build meaningful relationships

Expectations

- Serve with humility, dependability, and a Christlike attitude
- Be available for key events and service projects throughout the year
- Stay in communication with team leaders and fellow volunteers
- Be flexible, positive, and open to helping wherever needed
- Foster an environment of connection, growth, and encouragement among men

Thank You!

We're honored to serve alongside you. Your investment in Men's Ministry helps build a culture where men are strengthened in their faith, equipped to lead, and mobilized to serve. Let's keep pointing others to Jesus—together.
