Collect of the Day

Almighty God,
on the holy mount you revealed to chosen witnesses
your well-beloved Son, wonderfully transfigured:
mercifully deliver us from the darkness of this world,
and change us into his likeness from glory to glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

*Holy words long preserved, for our walk in this world.
They resound with God's own heart, oh let the Ancient words impart.*

*Words of life, words of hope, give us strength, help us cope.
In this world where e'er we roam, Ancient words will guide us Home.*

*Ancient words ever true, changing me and changing you.
We have come with open hearts, oh let the Ancient words impart.*

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading

Daniel 7:9-10,13-14

As I watched,
thrones were set in place,
    and an Ancient One took his throne;
his clothing was white as snow,
    and the hair of his head like pure wool;
his throne was fiery flames,
    and its wheels were burning fire.

A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence.
A thousand thousand served him,
and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.
The court sat in judgement,
and the books were opened.

As I watched in the night visions,
I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven.
And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him.
To him was given dominion
and glory and kingship,
that all peoples, nations, and languages
should serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that shall not pass away,
and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

Psalm 99

Tune 383

The Lord is King; let people
quake;
He sits above the cherubim;
In Zion God the Lord is great;
Let nations stand in awe of him.

He is the Holy One, his Name
Is awesome, great, let all confess;
"Lover of justice, mighty King,
You have established righteousness."

Proclaim God's greatness and
bow down
And worship him, the Holy Lord;
Moses and Aaron, Samuel,
They called on God and heard his word.

Out of the cloud he spoke to them,
They kept his law and his decrees;
O Lord, you answered and
forgave,
Yet punished all their evil deeds.

Proclaim God's greatness and
bow down,
Worship him on his holy hill;
He is the Lord, our God and King,
The Holy One, our Savior still.

Second Reading

2 Peter 1:16-

19

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.' We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

Holy Gospel

Luke 9:28-36

Gospeller: The Lord be with you

All: And also with you

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah'—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

A Polite Notice about leaving after the service....

A surprising number of people have asked about "proper etiquette" at the end of a service. Some people get up right away, some gather in groups to catch up, some depart immediately. Others like to sit and pray, or remain seated to listen to the organist's postlude. So, the questioner asked, what is the polite thing to do?

First, there are no hard and fast rules. If you need to get up and go, then you should absolutely feel free to do that, however, please be aware that others are using that time for quiet prayer, contemplation, or musical enjoyment - so perhaps keep chatting to a minimum. Secondly, organists often use the postlude to display the range and capabilities of the instrument. It is a wonderful show of support and encouragement when people take the time to listen and appreciate the music they provide. So, whatever you need to do at the end of the service, do your best to honour the needs of others as well.
