Reader: Susan Rand

Prayers of the People: Jan Horner

We recognize that our faith community gathers on the ancestral lands of the Tsartlip/W[̄]JOŁEŁP, Tseycum/WSIKEM, Tsawout/S̄TÁUTW, and Pauquachin/BOḰEĆEN Nations. In a spirit of gratitude and respect, we seek a growing relationship that fosters healing and hope for all our relations on the islands and inlets of the Salish Sea.

The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everliving God, whose Son Jesus Christ healed the sick and restored them to wholeness of life, look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your power make whole all peoples and nations; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Sermon by Gary Moss

The Offertory

(Now is the time to present your offering to God.)

Prayer of Saint Chrysostom

Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

The Grace

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer: Reflections on the Petitions

Join us this Lent as we embark on a gentle 7-week study of the petitions in the Lord's Prayer. This is a course designed for everyone who ever wanted to dig a bit more deeply into the words we pray together every Sunday.

It is an email-based course and material will be sent every Monday, Wednesday and Friday; beginning on Ash Wednesday. In each email you will find some art, a reflection on part of the prayer – beginning with “Our Father”, and a link to some music to help guide your meditation on the topic.

The course is based on the book Prayer by Karl Barth but can be enjoyed with or without reading the book. It is a self-paced and self-directed course with the opportunity to do as much or as little as you wish. We will offer a Zoom meeting every two weeks if you are interested to talk about what we have been studying.

To register please email me, Jayne Postuk at: jaynepostuk@mac.com or Denise at incumbent@holytrinity.org or leave your name and email address in the book that will be left on the table at the back of the Church. Feel free to share the emails with anyone you think would like to read them!
