

First Reading: Exodus 24.12-18

The Lord said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain and wait there; I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.” 13 So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up onto the mountain of God. 14 To the elders he had said, “Wait here for us, until we come back to you. Look, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.” 15 Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. 16 The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. 17 Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the Israelites. 18 Moses entered the cloud and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Psalm 2.

Why are the nations in an uproar?

* Why do the peoples mutter empty threats?

2 Why do the rulers of the earth rise up in revolt, and the princes plot together,

* against the Lord and the Lord's anointed?

3 "Let us break their yoke," they say;

* "let us cast off their 'bonds from us."

4 The One enthroned in heaven is laughing;

* the Lord has them in derision.

5 Then God speaks to them in wrath,

* and the divine rage fills 'them with terror.

6 "I myself have set my anointed

* upon my holy hill of Zion."

7 Let me announce the decree of the Lord,

* who said to me, "You are my heir; this day have I begotten you.

8 Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance

* and the ends of the earth for your possession.

9 You shall crush them with an iron rod

* and shatter them like a piece of pottery."

10 And now, you monarchs, be wise;

* be warned, you rulers of the earth.

11 Submit to the Lord with fear,

* and bow with trembling before the presence of the Lord;

12 lest God be angry and you perish;
*for the divine wrath is quickly kindled.

Happy are they all
* who take refuge in God!

Second Reading: 2 Peter 1 . 16-21

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, “This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” 18 We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

19 So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. 20 First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one’s own interpretation, 21 because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”
