

February 15, 2026, The Man Born Blind

(Transfiguration), John 9:1-41

Use this resource at home to guide your household's daily devotions.

Pray: Light a candle and open your devotion time with a prayer.

God of radical welcome, cure us of our inability to see your truth in our lives. Cure us of our inability to see your face in our neighbors. Cure us of our inability to see your presence in the natural world. Open our eyes that we might respond in joyful labor for the sake of all that you have made. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Read: Read the key verse from Sunday's reading.

He answered, "The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' Then I went and washed and received my sight." (John 9:11)

Reflect: Reflect on the scripture summary.

This man, Jesus, has some nerve: claiming authority to heal a blind man, and on the Sabbath, no less! The Pharisees won't see past their own legalistic view and behold the true miracle. Who, now, is the truly blind one?

Connect: Connect in conversation with others in your household.

- What was a high point of your day? What was a low point?
- How does Jesus reveal himself to you? Do you feel Jesus most close by when things are going well or when they are not?
- For the littles: What's something new you have learned this week?

Bless: Close your devotion with a blessing.

May God reveal Jesus to you daily. Amen.

Do: By acting on what we learn, we make God's word come alive. Do the following activity this week.

Journal every day this week. Make special note of the things you see more clearly once they are written down.
