

Pacific Growth Group – Sermon Questions

Week of February 15th, 2026

Sermon Series: Together: God’s Design for Relationships and Community.

Sermon Theme: “The Gift of Reconciliation”

Primary Text(s): Genesis 32:22-32 & 33:1-17

1. The sermon began with a reference to research on childhood moral reasoning.
  - a. Why do you think reconciliation often becomes more complicated as we grow older?
2. The sermon defined reconciliation as: “the restoration of a relationship after rupture through repentance before God, forgiveness empowered by God, and renewed commitment to peace through God’s grace.”
  - a. How does this definition differ from simply “moving on” or ignoring conflict?
3. Reflect on 2 Corinthians 5:19 and the idea that reconciliation is the “heartbeat of the gospel.”
  - a. Why is it important to remember that reconciliation is something we receive before it is something we practice?
  - b. How does God’s initiative toward us shape how we approach others?
4. Looking at Jacob and Esau (Genesis 25–27), how did envy, manipulation, impulse, and deception contribute to their estrangement?
  - a. Which of the “seven deadly sins” discussed in the sermon do you see most often damaging relationships today?
5. Jacob and Esau were separated for twenty years.
  - a. What is the difference between healthy space and sinful avoidance?
  - b. How do Proverbs 14:29 and 15:1 help us understand the wisdom of restraint?
6. In Genesis 32, Jacob wrestles with God and receives a new name.
  - a. Why was identity transformation essential before reconciliation with Esau could occur?
  - b. What does it mean for us to have “the mind of Christ” (Philippians 2:6–8) in strained relationships?
7. The sermon noted that the mind of Christ produces contrition in those who caused harm and forgiveness in those who were harmed.
  - a. Why are both humility and forgiveness necessary for reconciliation?
  - b. Which posture is more difficult for you personally, admitting wrong or releasing resentment?

8. Jacob initially attempted to manage the outcome when meeting Esau (Genesis 33).
  - a. What are subtle ways we try to manipulate reconciliation today (tone, timing, strategic vulnerability, etc.)?
  - b. Why must reconciliation be surrendered to God rather than engineered by us?
9. After reconciling, Jacob and Esau did not merge households.
  - a. What does this teach us about the difference between peace and proximity?
  - b. How can reconciliation coexist with wisdom and boundaries in certain relationships?
10. The sermon emphasized that Jesus is our peace and has destroyed the dividing wall of hostility.
  - a. How does Christ's work on the cross make reconciliation possible, even when it feels impossible?
  - b. What specific relationship in your life might God be inviting you to approach differently in light of the gospel?
