New Ministry Opportunities

Holy Trinity Hot Topic Happy Hour – Public Health

Sunday, February 22, 5:30-7:00 pm with childcare

Heidi Welch will share insights on current efforts by Health Impact Ohio, where she serves as Chief of Strategic Engagement and Operations, to collaborate on improving access to quality and equitable health and social services for Central Ohio's most marginalized communities.

Jasmine Garnes, CEO of 3rd Shift Warming and Cooling Center at First English Lutheran Church, will share experiences in running a 24-hour shelter on the near East Side of Columbus.

Dan Sharpe, Vice President of Community Research and Grants Management at The Columbus Foundation, will discuss the current state of nonprofit needs in the city and how we can share resources to support them.

Bring your favorite beverage and a snack to share. Please let Pastor Steve know if you'll need childcare.

Sunday Adult Faith Enrichment - Unnamed Women of the Bible

Sundays, February 22 and March 1 at 11:15 am

Pastor Bonnie will be teaching a two-week series on a couple of the unnamed women of the Bible who have played a role in God's story of redemption for the world:

- Noah's wife
- The Canaanite woman

You're invited to join the discussion in the conference room soon after the conclusion of 10:00 worship.

Souper Bowl Results

Many thanks to everyone that contributed to this year's Souper Bowl collection for Lutheran Social Services Champion Ave. food pantry. A total of $817 was raised. Those not caring about the outcome of the game led the pack with $361, the New England Patriots' supporters gave $160, the Seattle Seahawks' fans donated $158, and those hoping for a future Cleveland Browns' win contributed $138. Thank you one and all!

Midweek Lenten Theme – Belonging to Christ

How are YOU called to follow Christ?

What does it look like for you to belong to Jesus Christ? Not your pastor, or your professor, or your neighbor, or the leaders of your denomination, but you? How might your one-and-only life be patterned to align you with Christ? What pretense might you give up? What potential might open up for you as a disciple?

The book Belonging by Luther Seminary professor Dr Karoline Lewis will serve as a guide for our midweek Lenten reflections this year. Drawing on five keys to unlock the unique call of each disciple, we will all have opportunity to discover and apply a sense of Christian discipleship that is authentic to each of us.

Beginning at 11:45 am on Wednesdays, February 25 – March 25, we will explore a different key to discipleship and a different exercise in prayer while sharing a soup and bread lunch. Each Wednesday service will be recorded and posted to Holy Trinity's YouTube channel for those wishing to participate at a later time.

Please indicate at the ministry signup table in the Gathering Space if we can order you a copy of Belonging. You can also order a copy here <https://www.amazon.com/Belonging-Unlocking-Potential-Disciple-Leader/dp/1791025838> or you can download it here <https://www.abingdonpress.com/product/9781791025830/>

Please sign up at the ministry signup table to contribute soup or bread for lunch during Lenten Table Church.

Stewardship Corner

First Corinthians 16:2 urges us to give regularly, proportionately, and of our first fruits. When love for God becomes the motivating force behind our giving, we will find ourselves following that exhortation joyfully, freely, cheerfully. Week after week, we will give our tithe or beyond, writing out that check before we pay our bills. A love-motivated commitment puts God in charge. God promises to take care of us. God will meet our needs, and we give out of love for God and God's people. For more information about stewardship, please contact Max Buban at maxmbuban82@gmail.com.

News of Empower Ministries

Neighbor-to-Neighbor Opportunity

Please join members of the Neighbor-to-Neighbor ministry team on our field trip to experience the “Auschwitz – Not long ago – Not far away” Holocaust exhibition at the Cincinnati Museum Center on Saturday, March 21st. The Holocaust represents a sad part of human history, but one reason to study history is to learn from the mistakes. This exhibit is a good opportunity to learn about the horrors of the German Nazis' treatment of the Jewish people and other groups such as the Roma and individuals with disabilities they deemed “undesirable”. We will carpool, leaving the church at 8:30 am and returning around 5:30 pm. For more information and to sign up for the trip, please contact Sharon Hamersley at 614-395-9440 or slh1078@yahoo.com.

Empowerment Shelf – February 2026

By Elizabeth Sammons with love from Neighbor-to-Neighbor

Dorothy Height, The Origin of Others, and Someone Like Me are Neighbor-to-Neighbor's books of note for this month. This literature intends to expand our awareness, theology and/or acceptance of diverse viewpoints. We hope you'll discover how these writings from various generations embrace what it means to be human and to walk in spirit. ...

Dorothy Height by Lyons, Kelly Starling

Growing up as a Black girl in the 1920s and 1930s, Dorothy Height was denied access to a local swimming pool, as well as admission to Barnard College. But she persisted in pushing for change and became a seminal figure in both the civil rights and women's rights movements. She went on to win the Presidential Medal of Freedom. For third-grade readers and up.

The Origin of Others by Morrison, Toni

What is race and why does it matter? What motivates the human tendency to construct Others? Why does the presence of Others make us so afraid? America's foremost novelist reflects on these themes and more in this collection of essays, drawing on her own memories, as well as history, politics, and especially literature and its representations of race.

Someone Like Me by Arce, Julissa

This best-selling young writer shares her story about her journey to belong in America while growing up undocumented in Texas. For grades 6-9 and older readers.
