Theme: The good news is...so good it takes us by surprise

Paragraph for bulletin cover:

John's Gospel doesn't begin with a temptation story but instead opens Jesus' ministry with a wedding miracle. It may feel a bit lavish to start the season of Lent with a wedding banquet, but the good news begins with joy. This week we focus on the subversive and playful nature of the good news. The kingdom of heaven is so good it should catch us by surprise! Like a mustard seed, the good news can grow from the smallest seed into the tallest tree. Like an unruly weed, or fine wine saved for last, the good news is abundant and cannot be contained. As we sink into Jesus' teachings throughout the season, we may not always be comfortable, but we can trust that these teachings are good, rooted in love, and worthy of celebration.

+ GATHERING +

The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

WELCOME AND GREETING

PRELUDE Prelude on the Kyrie - Jean Langlais

CALL TO WORSHIP

The good news of the gospel is:

manna in the desert,
water turned into wine,
love after loss,
forgiveness after pain.

The good news of the gospel is:

release for the captive,
hope for the hopeless,
mourning turned to dancing,
and strangers turned to friends.

So come on in.

There's no time to waste!

This surprising good news is here for you.

Let us worship this good-news God.

GATHERING HYMN ELW 312 Jesus, Come! For We Invite You

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

You may have heard, "All is fair in love and war," or "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." But God says, "Forgive seventy times seven." God says, "I am slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love." God says, "Turn the other cheek." God's mercy catches us by surprise. So with wonder and gratitude, let us go to God in prayer. Let us be surprised by God's grace all over again. Friends, let us pray:

Loving God, somewhere along the way we picked up the message that in order to be faithful, we have to be serious. We have to pray on our knees without ceasing. We have to be somber in worship and quiet in our studies. We have to check our wiggles and our questions at the door. But then you say the kingdom of God is like a mustard seed—unruly and untamed. You turn water into wine—surprising and extravagant. And all of a sudden, we wonder:

Can we be like that mustard seed?

Can we be faithful and unruly?

Can we be playful and curious?

Can we be messy and still be yours?

We know the answer already. The Spirit whispers: of course, of course, of course. Forgive our doubt. Pull us closer into your embrace. With faith like a mustard seed, we pray. Amen.

God's grace is wild and unruly. God's mercy is abundant and surprising. God's love is expansive and unending. So if you ask, "Holy One, am I forgiven?" the answer is and always will be: of course, of course, of course. This is the good news of the gospel.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Holy One, it is easy to see the mustard plant and forget to marvel at the seed. It is easy to taste good wine and not appreciate it. It is easy to miss the holy that is in our midst. So as we turn to your word today, we pray, surprise us. Speak to us. Move through us. Draw us closer to your good news. We wait with bated breath. In the Your name we pray. Amen.

+ WORD +

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

FIRST READING: Matthew 13:31-32

At the conclusion of the reading:

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING: John 2:1-11

At the conclusion of the reading:

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

O God, maker of heaven and earth, your steadfast love embraces all creation and your good news is for all people. May the gifts we offer be used to spread the good news into the world, in the name of One who calls us to bear witness to his saving work. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

LORD'S PRAYER

Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

+ SENDING +
God blesses us and sends us in mission to the world.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BLESSING

As you leave this place,
when you meet anger, speak with love.
When you meet fear, speak with hope.
When you meet pain, speak with gentleness.
But no matter what, speak this good news.
For the good news of the gospel is love and justice for all.
It is joy that surprises,
and nonviolence that transforms.
The good news of the gospel is alive in the world,
so go forth speaking it,
in the name of the Father, the Son and the Spirit.
For if you won't, then who will?
Thanks be to God
for this good, good news.
Amen.
