On The Move

What would happen if the power of the _____ was suddenly turned off in your life?

We've become accustomed to relying on our _____ instead of depending on the power of the Holy Spirit that's been made available to us.

God, how do you want to move ____ me and _____ me?

We want our lives and our church to be _____ on the power of the Holy Spirit.

Our job isn't to create the _____... It's to recognize when it's _____ and raise our sails to _____ it.

Nothing tells the story of our hearts more than how we handle our _____.

It's not about the amount of _____ you exhibit but about the _____ behind it.

Sometimes the way God moves in us is to allow our current circumstances to become _____.

Sometimes God allows _____ in our present circumstances to propel us toward greater Kingdom _____.

- Acts 8:26

When God moves, He _____ to partner with us.

We have _____ we're not using, _____ we're spending on things that don't matter eternally, and _____ that could be redirected toward Kingdom purposes.

- Acts 8:26

God will always move to reach one _____ at a time.

- Acts 8:27

One evidence that God is moving in your life is that it requires major _____ from you.

- Acts 8:27
- Acts 8:29
- Acts 8:30-31
- Acts 8:36-38

Acts ___ is being written through your obedience, through your willingness to follow God's leading that connects people to the love of Jesus.

Christian _____ isn't just about being nice people who give... it's about being Spirit-led people whose giving flows from the guidance and empowerment of the Holy Spirit.

Generosity isn't _____ for followers of Jesus... it's _____, and it's empowered by the Holy Spirit.

- 2 Corinthians 2:6-8,11

God enables and empowers our generosity... He provides the resources, stirs our hearts, and multiplies our _____.

God is preparing _____ for even greater opportunities to demonstrate this kind of _____ in the coming years.

Every time we give as the Spirit leads, we're not just meeting a current need; we're investing in NFB's _____.
