Here We Stand

By Michael Orr

Death pounds daily at our door,
Grief encroaches more and more.
Pain in body knots our spirit,
Aging quakes the more we near it.

Trapped in tears and heavy aching,
While the strongest do the taking,
Weak and weary cry for bread,
No more refuge till they're dead.

But...

We will stand for all is well,
While this ship is set to sail,
Cast our anchor, sea or land,
Sure and steady, here we stand.

Fast the hour now approaches,
When the final act encroaches.
Darkness in a faceless mob,
Pushes, pulls, to steal and rob.

Desperate they to claim their wrath,
Follows broad the broken path.
Led by pain and wounding sin,
Blind and deaf, the path of men.

But...

We will stand when faith is tested,
For all along this dark is bested.
War is won by holy hand,
Strong and ready, here we stand.
