

I, the undersigned parent or legal guardian, acknowledge that my child is participating in activities at The Cross Baptist Church. I understand that while reasonable precautions are taken to ensure safety, there are inherent risks associated with participation in church activities and use of church property.

I agree not to hold The Cross Baptist Church, its staff, volunteers, or representatives financially liable for any injury or accident that may occur while my child is on church property or participating in church-sponsored activities, except in cases of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to this statement.
