Lent Reading

The Drennin Family

Reader: ... Let us confess our sins before God and before one another.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry, and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Lent Wreath

Lent marks the journey of Jesus towards his death. The gradual extinguishing of light represents the darkness and pain caused by sin in the world and the human heart. It reflects the abandonment of Jesus by his followers and the sorrow of his final days. Just as the light disappears, the final, dramatic restoration of the light on Easter Sunday symbolizes Christ's victory over death and his resurrection.
