MATTHEW 5:1-6

[1] Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him. [2] And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying:

[3] “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

[4] “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

[5] “Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

[6] “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Reflection Questions:

1. When was the last time that you felt deeply grieved by your own sins rather than the consequences of sin? How does today’s message speak to you about your sins?
2. What do you do when you find sin in yourself? Do you justify it, hide it, self-punish, blame-shift, or run to God? How does today’s message encourage you to go to God with your sins?
3. How does knowing that God’s comfort is coming help you face some of the difficulties you face as a Christian?
