

Lakeview United Affirming Statement

You deserve to be welcomed here.

We strive to ensure there are no barriers to inclusion within the Lakeview community: all races, ethnicities, genders, orientations, gender identities, abilities, ages, and people of all socioeconomic status are welcome.

It is imperative that we recognize the value of diversity and are committed to embracing each individual with joy, compassion and love.

At Lakeview we believe that our community, the ministries which they undertake and the assets which it owns are to be used by all to promote equality and love.

Lakeview is committed to seeking out all races, ethnicities, genders, orientations, gender identities, abilities, ages, and people of all socioeconomic status to serve in all levels of governance, committees. Your voice is important and welcomed.

This is our pledge, that we will do our best to welcome you here.

Treaty 4 Territory

We are privileged to gather today in Treaty 4 Territory which is the traditional territory of the Cree peoples and the homeland of the Métis people.

Truth and Reconciliation Learning for Non-Indigenous Peoples – being offered by the Regina Native Outreach Ministry. The course consists of four 2.5-hour sessions presented at Heritage United on Tuesday afternoons and evenings in March. This course deals with heavy, difficult subjects like racism, white privilege, white guilt, oppression, marginalization, systemic injustices, abuse, denialism, colonization and decolonization. For more information contact Cindy Dorr at 306-533-6858

A benefit concert for the Sandy-Saulteaux Spiritual Centre is being held at Harmony United this Sunday, March 1 at 2:30 p.m. Admission is by donation. The Sandy-Saulteaux Spiritual Centre in southeast Manitoba offers Indigenous ministry training and land-based learning events. The Centre is living out the United Church of Canada's apologies to Indigenous people, helping reconnect people to the ceremony and culture that was taken away through colonialism. Some members of our Lakeview Choir are participating.
