

Missionary Corner

To the faithful at North Peace MB,

Thank you for continuing to support us with your prayers. Rather than seeming to need less help from God as the years go by, we seem to be needing more! Our culture tends to value independence, but God seems to be intent on moving us all to depend on him more and more – sometimes gently, and sometimes more abruptly.

For a number of months now we have sensed spiritual opposition mounting against the translation of God's word for the Doku people. For example, this evening as I was preparing to work with the Doku translator over the internet, he got a phone call. I could see a look of deep concern pass over his face, and when the call ended he was quite distracted. We prayed together, talked briefly, and then he excused himself to return to his village, a couple of hours by bus away. I don't know what happened, but God does. Would you join us in praying for Jimmy and his family? And that our work of translating old and new testament passages that are part of the Sunday readings for many of the Doku churches would be able to continue? Before Jimmy left, he said he'd try to be back on Tuesday (our Monday). May God make it so!

We would appreciate your prayers for our family as well. We're continuing to adjust to Nathan's life in a wheelchair. It's going quite well overall, but we all have our days... Daily strength, patience, grace, and endurance are necessary – just like they are for you. May God's loyal love sustain us all,

Paul & Cathy
