THIS WEEK IN WORSHIP

Executive Pastor, David Washco

What does it mean to know you are saved—not just hope so, not just work toward it, not just believe it intellectually—but to possess a deep, settled assurance in your heart?

This Third Sunday of Lent, we will explore Romans 5:1–11 in a sermon titled “Hope and Assurance.” In this powerful passage, the Apostle Paul declares: “Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” But what does that peace feel like? How does it sustain us through suffering?

We will be viewing this text through a Wesleyan lens, drawing from the life and spiritual journey of John Wesley. On May 24, 1738, at a small meeting on Aldersgate Street, Wesley famously wrote that his “heart was strangely warmed.” That evening marked a turning point—not in his theology alone—but in his personal assurance of salvation.

Before Aldersgate, Wesley diligently pursued holiness, discipline, and sanctification. After Aldersgate, he understood something deeper: that justification by faith brings not only forgiveness, but confidence—an inward witness of the Spirit confirming that we are children of God.

During Lent—a season often associated with repentance and reflection—we will consider this question: Are we striving to earn what Christ has already secured? Or are we living from the assurance that we are already reconciled to God?

You will not want to miss this worship experience. Come ready to reflect, to be challenged, and perhaps even to discover anew the assurance that transforms faith from effort into joy. Join us this Third Sunday of Lent as we rediscover the peace, hope, and confidence that come through Christ alone.

Blessings,
Pastor David

Maundy Thursday Service at Salem UMC
 Denver UMC is partnering with Salem UMC throughout this season of Lent, and as our Lenten journey continues, Maundy Thursday is quickly approaching. Since Ash Wednesday was hosted at Denver's campus, this year's Maundy Thursday service will take place at Salem UMC and will feature their presentation of The Living Last Supper. This dramatization offers a meaningful glimpse into the lives of the disciples—how Jesus called them, how they followed, and how that final night unfolded. Congregants will also be invited to share in the experience of the Last Supper alongside them.

Salem is still seeking several male actors to portray the disciples. Monologues will be read rather than memorized, and costumes will be provided. Women are also welcome to serve as communion assistants as needed. Participation requires only two read-through rehearsals along with basic stage-presence guidance. If you feel called to take part, please contact Cheryl Barker at cheryl@salemunitedmethodist.com.

Whether you plan to participate or simply attend, we invite you to join this interactive time of worship at Salem United Methodist Church on Thursday, April 2 at 7:00pm. Come and remember the night before our Savior offered the ultimate sacrifice for us all.

New Wednesday Night Study During Lent

During the season of Lent, our Wednesday Night Bible Study will pause our journey through Matthew and enter into a focused six-week Lenten study.

Pastor Steve will guide us using resources from Lectio 365, an online prayer movement devoted to daily prayer and spiritual renewal. Together, we will explore the wisdom of the early desert fathers and mothers, Christians who withdrew into the wilderness and helped shape the life, theology, and spiritual practices of the early church through their rigorous devotion to prayer, Scripture, fasting, and attentiveness to the Holy Spirit.

Lent is a season set apart for reflection, repentance, and renewal. If you sense a need to slow down, deepen your prayer life, or invest more intentionally in your spiritual growth, this study is for you.

We will gather each Wednesday at 6:45 pm in the DUMC Chapel, immediately following Wednesday night dinner.

Come and grow in Christ—and in community—as we journey together toward Easter.

Sunday Morning Study Opportunity Sundays, 10:00 a.m. in the CORC

Have you ever wondered what it means to be a United Methodist? What do we believe? What is our theology, and where did this denomination come from? The Open Circle class will begin exploring these questions on January 18. Everyone is invited to join this time as Pastor Steve leads the conversation. The time starts on Sunday mornings at 10 a.m. in the CORC (old fellowship hall), with a time of fellowship, followed by teaching from 10:10 a.m. until 10:50 a.m. If you are new to DUMC and looking to get connected with others, this is a great way to meet new people and learn about the church. No need to sign up, simply show up!

Leadership Discipleship Experience #4 Wednesdays, 6:45 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. in the CORC
